

VI. CANTVS.

Now O now I needs must part, parting though I absent while I lue I needs must loue, loue lues not when hope is mourne, absence can no ioye em- part, ioye once fled cannot re- turne.

gone, now at last despayre doth proue, loue de- ui- ded lo- ueth none:

Sad dis- paire doth driue me hence, this dispaire vnkinde- nes sends, If that parting be of- fence, it is the which then of- fends.

Deare when I from thee am gone,
Gone are all my ioyes at once,
I loued thee and thee alone
In whose loue I ioyed once:
And although your fight I leaue,
Sight wherein my ioyes doo lye
Till that death do fence bereaue,
Neuer shall affection dye.

Deare if I do not returne,
Loue and I shall die together,
For my absence neuer mourne
Whom you might haue ioyed euer:
Part we must though now I dye,
Die I doe to part with you,
Him despayre doth cause to lie,
Who both liued and dieth true part, ioy once fled can not returne.

proue, loue de- ui- ded loueth none.
Sad dispaire doth driue me hence, this dispaire vnkinde- nes sends, If that parting be of- fence, it is the which then offends.

BASSES.

Now O now I needs must part, parting though I absent
While I lue I needs must loue, loue lues not when hope is gone, now at last despayre doth though I absence mourne, absence can no ioye em- not when hope is gone, now at last despayre doth part, ioy once fled cannot returne.

proue, loue de- ui- ded loueth none.
Sad dispaire doth driue me hence, me hence, this dispaire vnkinde- nes sends, If that parting be of- fence it is the which then offends.

TENOR.

part, ioy once fled can not returne.
proue, loue de- ui- ded loueth none.
Sad dispaire doth driue me hence, this dispaire vnkinde- nes sends, If that parting be of- fence, it is the which then offends.